

ENVISION HOLDS CHARITY LUNCHEON TO BENEFIT CLIENTS

Envision Therapeutic Horsemanship Inc., a 501(c)(3) organization, hosting “Carousel in the Park” at the Silverleaf Club

Scottsdale, AZ, April 28, 2016 – Envision Therapeutic Horsemanship Inc. will be hosting its first-ever charity luncheon, Carousel in the Park, at the Silverleaf Country Club in North Scottsdale. The proceeds from this luncheon will directly benefit Envision Therapeutic Horsemanship and the people it serves, enabling Envision to help more people in the community. The theme of the event is “Horses Delivering Hope”.

The event will include a catered meal and beverages, a carousel horse display, silent and live auctions, a wine pull with a selection of fine wines, and informative presentations. Noted author and speaker, Kristen Nelson, D.V.M., will discuss the transformational power of animals. Envision’s Silverleaf Country Club hosts are Tony and Donna Salcito.

The auctions will feature donated goods and services, such as spa packages, handbags, jewelry, restaurant gift cards, antiques, wine, whiskey and sports memorabilia. Of particular interest among the museum-quality artwork up for bid is the oil painting by artist Carl Ortman, “Soulmates”, which was inspired by Envision.

The special bond between humans and horses is at the heart of Envision’s services. “Horses are amazing relational animals,” explains Lisa Péwé, Envision’s Executive Director. “We use the relational aspect of a horse to help humans learn to communicate and to heal relational wounds.” Equine-assisted therapeutic activities also help clients living with physical challenges.

Envision’s supporters have made Carousel in the Park possible through a combination of ticket purchases, direct monetary donations, sponsorships and donations of auction items.

Envision would like to thank currently-registered sponsors, including Coney Island sponsor Victoria Longfellow of Longfellow Law Group PLLC and Balboa Park sponsors K2Adventures Foundation, Mr. and Mrs. Tony and Donna Salcito of the Silverleaf Club, Diann Wilson of Mediation Talk and Darra Rayndon of Clark Hill PLC.

*The Next Generation
of Therapeutic Horsemanship*

Additional sponsors and donors, whose generosity make Envision's work in the community possible, are welcome.

For more details about this upcoming event, visit envisiontherapy.org/Carousel-in-the-Park/.

About Envision Therapeutic Horsemanship

The mission of Envision Therapeutic Horsemanship is to engage in a partnership between horses and humans to benefit, empower and facilitate positive change in the lives of individuals and their families. Envision accomplishes this by providing therapeutic riding, equine-assisted therapy (through affiliation with client therapists) and therapeutic activities.

Envision also offers sibling and parent/caregiver programs, and educational classes on topics beneficial to clients. Envision is part of a referral network of both traditional and holistic professionals who work together to achieve positive change for the individual. Envision is based at a private ranch in Phoenix, Arizona.

Contact Information for Envision Therapeutic Horsemanship Inc.

P.O. Box 30921

Phoenix, Arizona 85084

Phone: 480-262-3434

info@envisiontherapy.org

Carousel in the Park Event Co-chair:

Victoria Longfellow

vlongfellow@longfellowlaw.net

(480) 348 - 6888

About the Country Club at Silverleaf

In the heart of North Scottsdale, Silverleaf is tucked into the beautiful canyons of the McDowell Mountains and surrounded by the McDowell Sonoran Preserve. Silverleaf is part of the renowned DC Ranch community. The private club features an 18 hole championship golf course, which was designed by Tom Weiskopf. The course winds along 7,322 yards of inspiring terrain. The 50,000 square-foot Rural Mediterranean-style Silverleaf Clubhouse is highlighted by world class spa facilities, resort and lap pools, fully appointed men's and women's locker rooms, as well as fine and casual dining.

*The Next Generation
of Therapeutic Horsemanship*